SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

During the second trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Elizabeth Lee Keville, a noted Virginia beauty and relative of Fitzhugh Lee, against her husband, Peter Keville, a millionaire woolen merchant, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, yesterday, Elizabeth Coffey, the Keville's servant, who is named by the wife, interrupted the proceedings by threatening a witness.

The witness was August Then. He testified that during the summer of 1904, while Mrs. Keville was in the country, he saw the Coffey girl summon Keville as the latter was leaving the Keville house, at 704 Patuxent avenue, and that Keville went to the basement and kissed the maid.

The Coffey girl was in court and at Then's words she sprang to her feet and shouted: "If I were near you, I'd fix you."

Mrs. Keville was granted a divorce at the first trial of the suit in December, 1906. She secured a decree, but this was reversed by the Appellate Division, which declared that the witnesses for Mrs. Keville were "meddlesome women" and that it was manifestly impossible to hear kissing through stone walls, as had been testified to by some of these witnesses.

The Kevilles were married in 1885, when Miss Elizabeth Lee was one of the most beautiful debutantes of Virginia. Mr. Keville is 15 years her senior. They separated in 1904. Mr.
Keville giving his wife $200 a month alimony since that time. Keville declines all the charges and says he was on his way to Europe at the time that her witnesses says he was kissing the maid.

THE LAKE COMO MYSTERY.

A part of a man's coat, declared by some of his fishermen neighbors to have belonged to Porter Charlton, was found yesterday in Lake Como, Italy, from the waters of which the body of his murdered bride, Mary Scott Castle Charlton, was recovered last Friday.

The torn garment was fished up from the bottom of the lake near the spot where the trunk containing the body of the woman was found. Saturday's discovery strengthens the theory of many that a double murder was committed. Earlier evidence that both of the Americans were killed, presumably for their valuables, was found in the blood-spattered bed at the villa which they occupied.

It is declared that the seven wounds found on the woman's head did not release any such quantity of blood as left its stains in their lake shore home.

Constantine Ispoloff, the chance acquaintance of the Charltons, from whom they leased the villa, remains in custody.

Further support of the double murder theory developed as the day progressed.

It was learned that the investigators had determined that the stone with which the trunk was weighted had been taken from the wall of the aqueduct on the shore of the lake. The stone had been removed from a spot in the wall opposite the point at which the trunk was submerged.

Following up this clue, the police discovered that another stone exactly similar in size had been recently dug out of the wall. This is held to be significant. The second stone, or rather the first stone removed, has not been located, and the police will not be surprised if they should find that it was used to drag below the surface of the lake another trunk or box containing the body of Porter Charlton.

TOWN SINKS IN EARTH.

A subsidence of the surface at Avoca, near Wilkes-Barre, Pa., yesterday morning, due to the old workings of the Pennsylvania Coal Company mines seriously damaged St. Mary's Catholic Church, the parochial residence adjoining and 14 other houses. Territory to the extent of 100 acres is affected.

The ground beneath the church was the center of the disturbance, and for 500 feet in a radius from the church the ground is opened by many fissures.
The foundation walls of the church are torn and cracked while the building is twisted off the walls and the violent wrenching and settling made a wreck of the interior.

The other places damaged are twisted and shaken, while their foundation walls are cracked and broken. The settling of the ground was from a few inches to three feet. The water mains in the streets were broken, and this added in the damage. Frequently roars and rumblings are audible and indicate that the further falls of rock are occurring in the old workings, and it is feared further and more extended subsidence of the surface will follow.

HEAVY DAMAGES DEMANDED.

Just $1,500,000 is asked of the United States as reparation for damages inflicted upon a company of magazine

FARMER'S WIFE

HAD HEAP TO DO

Mrs. Shepherd Was in Bad Shape
When She Could Not Stand on Her Feet.

Durham, N. C.—"I am a farmer's wife," writes Mrs. J. M. Shepherd, of this city, "and have a heap to do."
"Four months ago I could not stand on my feet, to do anything much, but at this time I do the most of my work. I took Cardui and it did me more good than all the doctors."

"You don't know half how I thank you for the Cardui Home Treatment. I wish that all women who suffer from womanly trouble would treat themselves as I have." Ladies can easily treat themselves at home, with Cardui, the woman's tonic.
It is easy to take, and so gentle in its action, that it cannot do anything but good.

Being composed exclusively of vegetable ingredients, Cardui cannot lay up trouble in your system, as mineral drugs often do. Its ingredients having no harsh, medicinal effects, and being non-poisonous and perfectly harmless, Cardui is absolutely safe for young and old.

Ask your druggist. He will tell you to try Cardui.

publishers in a bill introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri.

A brief accompanying the bill set forth that the Lewis Publishing Company, of University City, Mo., publishers of two magazines for women, were injured to the extent of the amount claimed by prosecutions begun by the Postoffice Department and the Department of Justice.

It is alleged that these publications were excluded from the mails, the company's business closed for many months, thousands of dollars extorted in unlawful postage rates, 300,000 copies of the magazines confiscated and spurious indictments brought against officers of the company and never tried.

The brief for the publishing company is signed by Edwin C. Madden, who was third assistant postmaster-general at the time the action of the government was taken against the publishers.

TO THE

Owners of Dogs!

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Alexandria, Va., June 11, 1910.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before JUNE TWENTY-EIGHTH, 1910, and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 28th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city, whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that: "The Mayor, in addition, at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation, shall declare that all such dogs as above licensed shall be securely muzzled, and no such license shall be valid at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force, or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed."

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

The following is a copy of Section 54 of the License Law: "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."

LUMBER

Our 1910 summer prices on Anthracite Coal became effective Monday, May 2, 1910.

There has never been a time in the history of our business when we felt that we were able to give better values in Anthracite Coal than we can this season, as we have completed our arrangements to secure our entire supply from two of the very best collieries in the Anthracite region, and will have a coal which is uniform in quality, well prepared, and coal that will give far better results than the average.

It is our desire to give our trade the best values that can be had, and we earnestly solicit the orders of our friends and customers.
